” We continue our reading of The Sacrament of Charity Sacramentum Caritatis ON THE EUCHARIST AS THE SOURCE AND SUMMIT OF THE CHURCH'S LIFE AND MISSION. In this section the Holy Father covered many topics including “Active Participation by the Sick.” Other topics included:

Participation by Christians who are not Catholic

The question arises if other Christians can receive the Eucharist at Mass? They should refrain, “The Eucharist in fact not only manifests our personal communion with Jesus Christ, but also implies full communio with the Church. This is the reason why, sadly albeit not without hope, we ask Christians who are not Catholic to understand and respect our conviction, which is grounded in the Bible and Tradition. We hold that eucharistic communion and ecclesial communion are so linked as to make it generally impossible for non-Catholic Christians to receive the former without enjoying the latter.

Participation through the communications media

“...with regard to the value of taking part in Mass via the communications media, those who hear or view these broadcasts should be aware that, under normal circumstances, they do not fulfil the obligation of attending Mass. Visual images can represent reality, but they do not actually reproduce it.(177) While it is most praiseworthy that the elderly and the sick participate in Sunday Mass through radio and television, the same cannot be said of those who think that such broadcasts dispense them from going to church and sharing in the eucharistic assembly in the living Church.”

He also encouraged care for prisoners and migrants in aiding their participation in the Eucharist

“Prisoners have a particular need to be visited personally by the Lord in the sacrament of the Eucharist. Experiencing the closeness of the ecclesial community, sharing in the Eucharist and receiving holy communion at this difficult and painful time can surely contribute to the quality of a prisoner's faith journey and to full social rehabilitation.”

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.”

Mk 6:31

I hope many will receive this invitation of Jesus in the Gospel to go on a retreat. We are blessed in the Diocese of Lincoln to have Our Lady of Good Counsel Retreat House in Waverly, NE. Our retreat house offers preached retreats as well as silent Ignatian Retreats with individual meetings with a spiritual director (4 day and 8 day). Check out the upcoming schedule for this fall: <https://goodcounselretreat.org/our-retreats/>

Going away to a retreat house helps us to intentionally make space for silence and prayer to encounter Jesus. St. John Paul II wrote, “...we cannot come to the fullness of contemplation of the Lord's face by our own efforts alone, but by allowing grace to take us by the hand. Only the experience of silence and prayer offers the proper setting for the growth and development of a true, faithful and consistent knowledge of that mystery which finds its culminating expression in the solemn proclamation by the Evangelist Saint John: "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father" (1:14). I encourage us to prayerfully consider going on a retreat this year. If time is an issue, let's ask the Lord for the courage to make time. If insufficient money to pay for the retreat is an issue, please reach out to me and we will find a way through scholarships. One can ask the Holy Spirit's help to be creative to find the time. For example, a married couple could not make it to a retreat house but they were able to do a “stay at home” retreat, making time for one holy hour a day for 40 days and meeting their parish priest weekly for spiritual direction. We will find great peace in the time we give to Jesus. Fr. Clinch

Mission Appeal - The ministry of Polish Redemptorists in the East – August 24/25th Fr. Janusz Sok Dear Parishioners

The Missionary Cooperation Plan helps to spread the gospel, build churches and communities around the world. This year I invite you to support the missionary work of Polish Redemptorists in the East. We have been working in the former Soviet Union for 30 years. At present, we are helping those affected by the war in Ukraine and run five parishes in Russia, one in Kazakhstan, five in Belarus.

This is an unpresidential time and we need to stand firm for peace working together to bridge the chasm created by war. The Polish Redemptorists with your help will be able to do so in a more efficient way. As a people of faith, we look forward to the future believing that the best is still ahead of us.

I'm sincerely grateful to the Diocese of Lincoln for choosing the Polish Redemptorists-Mission in Russia to do the Mission Appeal in your Parish. Thank you for your prayers and support. May God bless you for your generous support through the Missionary Cooperation Plan. Rev. Dariusz Paszynski CSSR
