Solemnity of Christ the King: This Sunday is The Solemnity of Christ the King. The feast was established in 1925 by Pius XI and is now celebrated on the last Sunday before Advent. It is an opportunity to meditate not only the Kingship of Christ and His rightful reign in our lives, but also the nature and source of temporal authority, justice, peace, liberty and true freedom. An excellent meditation for this week is the encyclical Quas Primas which established the feast. It is short, very readable and available on vatican.va

Grief and the Holidays: December 6th at 7 pm please join Sandy Danek, founder of Healing Hearts Grief Ministry, as she explores "Grief and the Holidays" from a Catholic perspective. Open to anyone who has experienced a loss of a loved one, is suffering from infertility or miscarriage, or those who want to know how to better support a loved one experiencing grief. More information and registration is at <https://lincolndiocese.regfox.com/grief>. This free event will be at the Harbor Coffeehouse and livestreamed.

Adult Bible Study: The adult Bible Study will not meet this Thursday due to the holiday. It will resume on December 2nd at 6:30pm. The topic on December 2nd will be chapters 3-4 of the Gospel of Luke.

We will be joining the rest of the country in prayer on the evening before the Supreme Court takes up the case of Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health. This is a monumental moment in the Pro-Life movement, as the decisions of this case could bring down Roe vs. Wade, that wrongly allowed legalized abortion in the United States for almost 50 years.
